Lance Meyer focuses his commercial litigation practice on insurance-coverage, construction, products liability, and other general liability matters. In his insurance-coverage practice, Lance counsels insurers on a variety of complex coverage issues, including trigger, allocation, other-insurance, duty-to-defend, bad-faith, coordination-of-coverage, and construction-defect issues, and represents them in all stages of insurance-coverage disputes in state and federal court. He was named to the Minnesota Rising Stars list for insurance coverage in 2018. In addition to insurance-coverage matters, Lance represents contractors involved in claims, arbitration, and litigation involving construction projects and businesses and individuals involved in products liability and other commercial litigation matters. Lance has also assisted clients with appeals before Minnesota's appellate courts and the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals. Lance is licensed in Minnesota and Wisconsin. Prior to joining the firm, Lance clerked for Judges Francis J. Connolly, Michelle A. Larkin, and Louise Dovre Bjorkman of the Minnesota Court of Appeals. While attending law school, he externed for Chief Judge Michael J. Davis of the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota and served on the William Mitchell Law Review.
